You understand the value a nonqualified deferred compensation plan brings to your organization and key employees— you have one! But is your plan all it can be?

Taking a closer look at your plan's design, financing options and administrative services can help you determine how well it's meeting your needs— or not. You can trust us to help you and your financial professional do just that.
How healthy is your plan?

As a sponsor of a deferred comp plan, you’ve already made a decision you can feel good about by investing in your key employees. You can feel even better about this decision by periodically looking at the health of your plan to ensure it’s doing all it can to help meet the needs of your organization and key employees.

We can help you do just that. As the No. 1 provider of nonqualified deferred comp plans¹, we see hundreds of plans each year. Together with your financial professional, we’ll help you with the:

Design – Choose the plan design options that help meet your organization’s goals.

Support – See the support services to help maintain and recognize the value of this program.

Financing – Decide which financing option best balances long-term costs and plan benefits.

Deferred comp plan trends show that these key factors help build satisfaction with the plan’s record-keeper²:

- Easy to do business with
- Understands company needs
- Resources to offer the best plan*
- Partners effectively on plan-administrative challenges
- Thought leadership*

* Significant increase over 2015 results.

You want to offer key employees the benefits they value – and those that will have a positive influence on them and your organization. Our team of experts will work closely with you and your financial professional to develop a strategy for implementing and servicing your deferred comp plan.

But we don’t stop there. Year after year, we’ll continue to work closely with you and your financial professional to fine-tune your plan and make sure it’s still meeting the goals of your organization. We’ll also take a close look at the inner workings of your plan to make sure it’s being administered as efficiently as possible.

 Keeping you in-the-know

To help you stay on top of your plan, a range of information is available on our website and corporate accounting reports. You also have easy access to plan asset and liability reporting, investment resources and other tools to assist with administering your plan. Plus, depending on your plan type and design, you’ll receive:

- Access to plan participants’ account information.
- Daily valuation of assets/liabilities.
- Asset/liability information and rebalancing services.
- Financing reviews to assess plan performance.
- Updates on enrollment progress.
- Quarterly newsletter featuring legislative news, service updates and more.

Our education plan guide walks you through everything you’ll need for a successful annual enrollment event.
Turning your key employees into plan participants
Regardless of the type of deferred comp plan you had before, we'll make sure all of your eligible key employees know the value of participating in this type of exclusive plan. We'll provide answers to their questions, so they can feel confident in making an informed decision to participate. We're here to help every step of the way:

Step 1: Introduce the plan
No matter the level of understanding your key employees have about deferred comp, we offer award-winning* education that can be customized to introduce the plan and explain how it works.

Step 2: Enrollment
Participants can conveniently enroll online at principal.com. Our deferred comp plan specialists are available to answer questions Monday-Friday.

Step 3: Ongoing education and planning
We want to help your participants stay on track with their financial goals. So we provide additional communication and education to promote greater understanding and appreciation of the benefit. Participants can find information about their accounts, investment strategy, contributions and scheduled distributions at principal.com.

Notes:
- Alerts provide important plan updates or items participants need to take action on.
- Account balance and growth information is front and center.
- An asset allocation chart shows distribution of assets.
- Participants set savings goals and see the impact of their contributions through our Deferred Compensation Planner.
- Quick links cover the tasks participants use most frequently – now just a click away.
- Contribution and distribution information is available at a glance.
- The latest educational tools are served up for viewing.

Once your plan is in place, we’ll make sure to provide:

- Close attention to the plan over time, such as a participant’s account balance from the beginning of the plan until payout at retirement.
- Experienced specialists who offer feedback on factors that can influence the plan, such as plan design changes and regulatory updates.
- Analytical tools and resources are available for new and existing plans – all while watching out for your bottom line.
- Periodic financing reviews help ensure the plan’s financing continues to meet your goals.
- Annual service reviews to discuss how the plan is doing.
- Access to online dashboards of information.

Mission control for the plan – An employer home page helps make managing the plan simple. Common tasks are featured, along with critical plan information.

Participant snapshot – Enter a participant’s ID or his/her last name for access to basic employee data, account balances, contributions and distributions.

Quick actions – These are the tasks used most frequently, just a click away.

Portfolio assets vs. liabilities – View up to five quarters of portfolio assets, liabilities and future tax-benefits data at a glance.

Transaction history – See the three most recent transactions from up to two years ago. Transactions can be filtered by date or type.
Financing
How can you pay plan benefits in the future?

Keeping your promise to pay benefits to participants in the future is important. Any one of the three (or combination of) financing options below can help you do that. Plus, we’ll provide a detailed financial model comparing the options to help you make this decision.

Options for financing your plan

- Company cash – No specific plan assets are set aside. Instead, benefits are paid through the company's cash flow.
- Taxable investments – The company invests in mutual funds and/or individual securities.
- Corporate-owned life insurance (COLI) – The company purchases a life insurance policy to pay future obligations.

Focused investment management

Choosing investment options can be a challenge. That’s why Principal provides a high-level analytical process for identifying and monitoring investment options within each asset class and investment style. This helps ensure quality investment options from well-known investment managers.

Investment flexibility and choice

To provide you and your plan participants significant flexibility, our solution to investment management services from Principal provides an expansive investment platform. You have access to internally and externally managed investment options, including sub-advised options and name-brand mutual funds.

Most employers and their financial professionals select a broad range of investment options and allow their employees to choose among multiple fund families and money managers, which helps meet their objectives and level of risk tolerance.

These investment options are valued daily with performance information and investment-option details, including a customized investment-option profile.

Investment mapping strategy

Principal can work with your financial professional to develop an investment option mapping strategy for COLI or taxable investments. It illustrates the approach to use when transferring balances to Principal, as well as providing the final fund lineup. The process involves analyzing the current fund line-up and comparing it to what's available via the Principal platform.

Transitioning the plan

How do we work together for success?

You’ll work closely with our experienced team members who have extensive training and utilize proven and trusted best practices. They’ll guide you through a successful transition, helping to make sure your implementation goals are met throughout the process.

Our priority is to help you complete the transition as easily as possible – and above all, accurately. We’ll work toward a smooth and on-time transition for your organization, allowing you to focus on other business priorities. You can also count on us to work with your current service provider as necessary. This includes being able to accept various file formats when receiving the required files from them. Plus, we review and utilize information already on our system – reducing your role in the transition process.

A tailored plan of action

We understand that your organization, just like our many clients, has unique needs and objectives. And we know flexibility is key in transitioning your deferred comp plan to us. So we’ll work with you to create an action plan that’s tailored to your specific needs. It’ll be a customized transition and communication plan that can include a timeline, plan design analysis, investment mapping and a strategy for educating your plan participants.

We stay in touch with you and your current service provider throughout every step of the transition process. Conference calls, scheduled communications and other materials keep you informed and provide the information needed to communicate with your eligible, active and terminated participants.

“(We receive) fantastic experience from our service team representatives on up to our client relationship manager. We have a great working relationship (with them). They understand our complicated structure, are well-respected by our senior leadership team and very responsive.”
