Who I am and how I can help you

In my role as a senior internal wholesaler with nonqualified deferred compensation plans, I support financial professionals and employers in the sales and service of these plans to organizations. The deferred comp benefits we provide to clients help them recruit, reward, and retain key employees. And research shows that both employers and key employees value this benefit for a variety of reasons.¹

I work closely with Mike Roesler, regional vice president of nonqualified plans, to support financial professionals and their clients in the West region. You can count on me to help with marketing, education, and setting up a deferred comp plan. I'll also work to simplify complex ideas and, with the financial professional, help put a solution in place to meet the employer's needs.

I've been with Principal® since 2006. I have a degree from Eastern Washington University in Cheney, Washington. In addition to having insurance licenses, I hold Series 6 and 63 securities registrations from the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). I live in Nine Mile Falls, Washington with my husband and two sons, and I enjoy spending time at the lake, photography, and running.
