

Your plan, right at your fingertips

How to access and manage your plan online

We know that staying informed about your plan details, and having the power to take control of plan management, is important in securing your financial future. That's why we've made it easy to create your account, access it any time, and get where you need to go.

Create your account

- Go to principal.com and select Log in.
- Click Create an account to get started.
- At any time, you can click the Need Help link for instructions.
- You'll complete several steps to verify your identity, build your profile, and establish security measures.
- In a minute or two, you'll receive a confirmation from which you'll need to log in again, this time using your new user name and password.
- Then, you'll set up more security measures, agree to do business electronically, and be able to access account information to enroll.

Once logged in, click the name of the nonqualified benefit program you want to view.

Know where to go

There's so much you can do online—review your balance and performance, manage contributions and distributions, update your info and beneficiaries, and more. The easy-to-use links at the top will get you started*.
