

Group life insurance

Protect what means the most to you

It's a fact of life: We don't always know what the future will bring. Have you planned ahead to protect the dreams of the people you love?

Life has its twists and turns, and the only thing you can really expect is the unexpected. That's why being prepared for the future—protecting your dreams and the dreams of your loved ones—may be a top priority.

While it's not easy to think about what would happen to your family if you passed away, it doesn't have to be complicated. What plans have you made to protect your loved ones if something were to happen to you?

Here's how life insurance works

Life insurance helps you put the people in your life first. If something were to happen to you, your life insurance proceeds would go to the people you've designated as your beneficiaries. Those funds can help them manage financial obligations, such as:

- Funeral expenses
- Childcare
- Mortgage/rent
- Daily living expenses
- Paying off debts
- College funding

LET'S LOOK AT AN EXAMPLE.

Logan worked full-time while her spouse Riley stayed home with their three young children. For them, childcare costs outweighed the income Riley would bring home, so they'd decided to rely on Logan's paycheck for all their expenses. But Logan and Riley were planners, and they'd prepared for the unexpected by purchasing life insurance.

So when a sudden heart attack took Logan's life, Riley knew their family's financial future would be taken care of. They could mourn Logan's loss as a family, all while knowing their world wouldn't be disrupted more than they'd already experienced.
