

Individual disability insurance

Offer your key employees
a benefit they'll value.

Retain and reward your key employees

Your select key employees play an important role in the success of your organization. So, how can you keep them happy and motivated for the long term?

One way to do that is to strengthen your employee benefits package with income protection using individual Disability Income insurance from Principal®. This valuable coverage helps protect employees' income. It replaces a portion of their income if they become too sick or hurt to work. Plus, it can be tailored for your business's needs:

- You can offer it to select groups of employees.
- Your business may receive tax advantages.
- It's something your employees may not have considered, but will likely value.

Three ways to leverage income protection for key employees

Salary continuation

With this plan, you can provide coverage to specific groups of employees.

How it works:

Executive bonus

This allows you to give select employees a cash bonus, so they can purchase coverage.

How it works:

DI Retirement Security

This solution helps employees continue to save for retirement if they become too sick or hurt to work.

Comparing the three protection options

	Salary continuation	Executive bonus	DI Retirement Security
Plan set-up	You set up a formal plan that aligns with tax code requirements.	No formal documentation required.
Employees covered	You select which groups of employees to cover. As employees meet the criteria for the group, you add them to the plan.	You choose who to cover.
Premiums	You purchase a policy for each employee and deduct the premiums as a fringe benefit expense. Premiums are not taxable to employees.	The bonus you provide to employees is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Deductible to you, but may add marginal costs because of additional taxes and benefits.</li> <li>• Taxable as ordinary income for the employee.</li> </ul>	You can pay premiums directly, bonus the employee to pay them, or the employee can pay them with after-tax dollars.
Policy ownership	The employee owns the insurance policy and has full rights to it.
Benefit payments	The employee receives benefits directly from Principal. The benefits are considered taxable income.	The employee receives benefits directly from Principal on an income-tax-free basis.	Benefits are paid directly to an irrevocable trust. Depending on who pays the premium, the benefits may or may not be taxable to the employee.
